2-1-1

2-1-1's database of health and human services is available to everyone in Connecticut looking for basic needs, counseling, education, financial assistance, and much more. We strive to keep the resource directory current and comprehensive but we need your help. Don't let outdated information prevent Connecticut residents from having access to your services.

Help us direct callers to the right resources by updating your information.

1. Go to www.211ct.org.
2. Click on "2-1-1: Search for Services in Connecticut" on the left side of page.
3. Type all or part of the name of your agency in the "Search by Agency/Program" field then click "go".
4. Locate your agency/program in the list and review the information. (Unable to find your agency? Contact Theresa Baylock at 860-571-6053 or theresa.baylock@ctunitedway.org.)
5. Use the back of this form to verify if your information is correct or to submit updated information. (Information can also be updated online at <http://www.211ct.org/professionals/updateform.html>)
